TWENTIETH SUNDAY - 20th AUGUST 2023

Dear Parish family,

Isn't strange that the woman in the Gospel today is described as a Canaanite? Well I find it strange!

The Gospel is about crossing boundaries and moving into new territory - becoming open to new people and newer ideas.

Here in pagan country, Jesus encounters an outsider, an alien; He meets a Canaanite woman, a descendant of one of the early enemies of the people of Israel.

She is an outsider, a stranger an enemy and yet like so many of us, she needs God.

In this encounter God in a strange why is being invited to go beyond His comfort zone.

He is being invited to reach out to one who does not truly know Hm, but who desperately needs Him.

In this woman, God encounters true, real and vibrant faith; and in this encounter God reaches out to the desperate woman, as God will never ignore our genuine faith.

I wonder, if you and I, can begin to reach out to those that exist outside our comfort zones. Can we be challenged to recognise the genuine faith in those we sometimes do not expect to find it.

May God continue to Bless you all.

Fr. Kieren

Music Ministry – Would you like to sing in the Choir? The liturgy and music play a major part in our parish and we would like to invite you to join our music ministry. English Martyrs choir are looking for new members to enhance the liturgy. Very often we hear people say 'I can't sing' or 'I can't read music'. You shouldn't let that stop you. If you enjoy singing then please feel free to come along to one of our practices, currently on a Wednesday night at 7.15pm to see if it's something you'd like to do. Like any voluntary role, commitment is needed and only with this commitment can we make the music ministry a success. So, if there are any singers out there that who would like to join us in please feel free to speak to me at any time after the 9.30am mass or email me at:deborahp514@gmail.com

As we continue our Synodal journey, draw us closer to each other.

Can I remind you to be respectful of the sacred space that is the church and remember that many desire silence before Mass so that they may prepare themselves to meet the Lord in prayer.

It is hoped that our Parish family will engage in the "Big Listen" in October/November 2023. The review aims to help shape the future of safeguarding within the Catholic Church and make representations where it is evident or perceived that the current policies and procedures are outdated, or there is a gap or no policy for a situation. To help the review team take into consideration as many views as possible, the CSSA is requesting that people right across the Catholic Church in England and Wales complete the following survey: https://forms.office.com/e/PavSuixHim

A History of the Catholic Church in Stretford & Urmston Lawrence Gregory, former parishioner of St Ann's and ex-diocesan archivist is publishing a new book on the collected histories of the Catholic Churches and schools in Stretford & Urmston. 15 years ago he did an oral-history project at St Ann's recording people's memories of the parish, school, and priests - from the 1930s to the 1970s, and would now like to do the same with long standing parishioners and former parishioners of St Hugh's, St Anthony's, St Teresa's, St Lawrence's, St Alphonsus, English Martyrs, St Monica's and Our Lady of the Rosary. We are also looking to collect old photographs from all the parishes, which we can copy for the book. If anybody has old pictures or would agree to being interviewed Please speak to Lawrence by email LRCGregory@outlook.com.

THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

The Code of Canon Law states:
"Parents are obliged to see to it that infants are baptised within the first weeks after birth"
(867)

This canon, although not always practical for many reasons, reminds us of the importance and urgency of the sacrament of Baptism. As a Parish within the Diocese of Salford we follow the Diocesan Baptism Policy. In order for a baby/child (under the age of 7) to be baptised, the Catholic family, (resident in the Parish of St. John Henry Newman) if not already practising their faith, must begin to attend Sunday Mass for a minimum of at least 6 weeks before a baptism date can be discussed. To discuss this further please contact Fr. Kieren or speak to him after Sunday Mass.
